L&T Hydrocarbon Engineering Wins SAP ACE Award 2014.

L&T Hydrocarbon Engineering (LTHE) won the SAP ACE Award for implementing Project PACE - eSourcing Portal (ARIBA) across the company. Over 140 companies had sent their nominations for SAP India's ACE Awards.

In 2010, LTHE had received the SAP ACE award for Customer Excellence for the 'Best Run Engineering, Construction & Operations (ECO)' for neat IT implementation in a fabrication facility that supports ECO customer needs.
